Speaker: Melodey Mozely Hauch, member of the Texas City Ancestry Searchers and Bay Area Genealogical organizations, talked about the history of Virginia Point. She has been a local historian for the past 20 years, researching and writing many articles for publication. Melody is currently Vice Chair of the Galveston Historical Commission and is head of a committee to write a history of the county. While researching local communities, she uncovered a great deal of information about Virginia Point and the history of county transportation.

Steve adjourned the meeting just after 8 PM.
